Hanumia alias Hanumanthia versus 1 Rungappa and others

(1) In March 1871 the Amildar of Honnali at the request of one Seekappa the hukdar Patel of Hirebasur who had been then old and unfit for managing the Patel duties, recommended that his eldest son Hanumia× might be appointed Patel and as the latter was illiterate one Hanumanthia (appellant) son of the said Seekappa's younger brother might be directed to officiate as gumastha.

13. 3. 72 The Deputy Commr. thereupon directed the Amildar to allow Hanumanthia to do the duties pending orders of the Divn. Superintendent.

(Vide Dy Commrs letter.) (What further order was passed in the case is not clear, since the Deputy Commr says, in his letter to this office, that the records have been destroyed)

× also named Dodda Hanumia

Genealogical tree

On the 3d January 1890 Ranyia grandson of the above named Seekia presented a petition to the Asst Comr Shimoga that formerly the Kumbli lands and the Patelship of Hirebasur had been in the enjoyment of Seekia, that afterwards the said lands and the Patelship had been in the enjoyment of his father Dodda Hanumappa, that after the death of the said Dodda Hanumappa the lands had been register-ed in his name, that since he had been a minor, Hanumanthappa above named had been appointed to officiate as gumastha, though the kararnama had been made out in his name only, and that as his younger brother Giriyappa was 20 years old and further fit to manage the Patelship duties, he might be appoint-ed Patel.

The Amildar was thereupon directed to submit a detailed report of the case.

10·1·90

Hanumia appellant son of Giriyappa presented a petition to the asst Commr Shimoga Dist that during the life-time of his senior uncle Seekappa the Pateli had been registered in the name of the said Seekappa's son Hanumia and he appellant had been directed to officiate as gumastha, that since then he had been doing the duties, that Rungappa grandson of Seekappa had presented a petition that he should be appointed as Patel, that the said Rungappa was illiterate and that he (appellant) might be ordered to continue as gumastha.

11·1·90

The amildar was thereupon directed to dispose of the case and if necessary to submit a report.

The amildar held an enquiry into the case.

5·3·90

Rungappa above named son of Dodda Hanumappa gave the following statement before the amildar:

" The Pateli of this village had been registered in the name of my grand-father Seekappa.

After his death the bara . vard was made out in the name of my father.
He was illiterate and therefore his uncle Girijappa's son Hanumanthappa
had been directed to officiate for him in in 1872. He has been since then doing the duties. I was then a minor. Now I have attained majority and can do the duties.
My younger brother Girijappa is able to manage the duties.
The baravard should be ordered to be made out in his name or in my name only."

Girijappa stated as (5) follows:-
"Since 1872 Girijappa's son Hanumanthappa
has been doing the duties.
We were then young. Now we are able to manage the duties. The baravard should be ordered to be made out in my name or in the name of my elder brother Rangappa."

Hanumanthia appellant 7-3-90 son of Girijappa states as follows:-

The Patels of this village have been registered in the name of Seekia my father's elder brother. About 20 years ago after the death of the said Seekia the Govt held an Enquiry into the claims of Dodda Hanumanthia, Son of the said Seekia, to be made the bar uvaddar.

(6) Seekia had effected a settlement that the Pateli ~~deceased~~ should go to the share of his younger brother Girijappa's family. I have been accordingly appointed. I was not appointed as gumastha. The Khata for umbli lands stands in accordance with the settlement made by our elders. Rungappa is not entitled to the Pateli."

(7) The Amildar thereupon submitted a report that 22. 8. 80 since 1872 Hanumanthia (appellant) had been doing the duties as gumastha that there was nothing to be found in the records in support of the said Hanumanthias ~~allegation~~ allegation that a partition had formerly been effected according to which the umbli lands had to go to one branch of the family and the Pateli to the other branch, that the said Hanumanthia had been appointed as gumastha only & that the Potgi varavard showed that Seekappa was dead that his son Hanumia was appointed his successor and that his gumastha was Hanumanthia. He further reported that Rungappa and his two brothers did not appear fit to manage the Patel duties, that Hanumanthia (applt.) had been for the past 20 years managing the duties satisfactorily, that in fact there was nothing to deprive the said Rungappa of his hak to the office and that under these circum-stances it would not in his opinion, be just to deprive Hanumanthia (applt.) of his gumastha

-ship."

The Deputy Commr ordered (7) that the matter might be placed before the Huzur-jamabandi 5-9-90 officer & that final orders might be obtained from him.

The jamabandi officer (8) observing that it did not appear from the genealogical tree that Rungappa & his brothers had any link to the office, ordered the amildar to submit a report as to when the umbli land came to Rungappa's 2-1-91 possession and also with regard to other particulars.

The Amildar sub-mitted the statements given by the holders of the umbli lands and reported that the said statements showed that both Rungappa and Hanumanthia appellant had been enjoying some shares in the umbli land.

The said statements 28-1-91 given by the holders of the umbli land, before the (9) amildar ~~stated~~ mention that the umbli lands attached to the Patel of Hirebasur are in the enjoyment of several hissedars that there are two khatés for the lands
- one standing in the name of Rungappa son of Giriappa and another in the name of Rungappa, (1st Respt.) son of Dodda Hanumappa above named that both the appellant and the 1st Respondent Rungappa have got some shares in the said umbli lands.

The Deputy Comm^r issued an order to the Amildar to send the records in connection with order no 130 of 13.3.1872, and to report as to what had become of the Pukka Polgi Registers. 19.2.91 (10)

The Amildar thereupon submitted his report that the records of 1872 referred to above had been submitted to the Dist^t office along with the Amildar's report no 158 of 26.5.72, and that the Polgi Register was not to be found in his office records. 31-8-91 (11)

On the 11^th September 1891 the Deputy Comm^r held an Enquiry into the case. (12)

Rungappa 1^st Respt^t gave the following statement:-

" The Patels of Hirebasur had been registered in the name of my grandfather Seekappa. He had requested Govt to make my father Baragandar. I do not know writing. The Baragand should be made out in the name of my younger brother Giriappa and Hanumanth-appa who is now doing the duties should be ordered to do the duties for one year more, as the said Giriappa has yet no experience of the work."

Giriappa & his ~~both~~ younger brother Thimmappa also stated to the above effect.

Hanumanthappa appellant stated he had been doing the Patel duties for a long time and that he would not agree to officiate as gumastha only for one more year and then hand over charge to the karnavardar.

The Deputy Commr. thereupon ordered that it was not proper to have failed to transfer the karnavard so long although many years had passed since the death of Seekappa & Dodda Hanumappa, that the karnavars should therefore be made out in the name of Giriappa son of Dodda Hanumia and grandson of Seekappa, that the said Giriappa ~~should be~~ appointed on probation for one year & that after the Expiry of one year a report should be made as regards his qualifications that Hanumanthia (appellt) should be removed. The Dy Comm^r states in his order that Hanumanthia had refused to continue doing duties as gumastha for another year as desired by the hukdar.

The appeal is against this order.

Hanumanthia appellant alleges :-

(1) that a partition had been formerly effected according to which the Patel came to his share.

(2) that in the Potgi settlement of 1878 he was registered as Patel.

(3) that he has been doing the Patel duties for the last 30 years.

H.C.M. On 23.9.92 the Dy Comm^r was requested to send the records of 1872 relating to the appointment of appellant as gumastha of Dodda Hanumia or certify that the records have been destroyed.

The Dy Comm^r replies that the Rev^e Record keeper has certified that the records of 1872 referred to above have been destroyed, that the Pukka Potgi Settlt records are not forthcoming, although a careful search was made, & that the amildar has reported that apparently nothing was recorded at the Pukka Potgi Settlt about the office in question (continuation)

In this office no. 17482 dated 24th Sept 1892 April 1893 the Supt. of Survey was requested to send the records relating to the settlement of the Potgi of the patel of Hirebasur.

The Survey Supt. has complied with the request.

No. 1089 dated 4th May 1893 from the Supt. Rev. Survey

Under the head "names and shares" in column no. 4 of statement 5, are mentioned

" 1 Rungia bin Hanmappa 2 Rungia and Giriappa "

The patel Register for 1874 of malloor magani said to have been received from the Taluk ~~office~~ gives the name of Seekia as the registered patel of Hirebasur and the name of Hanmanatha ~~as~~ Gumastha as the person actually doing the duty.

The Patel Kumbi statement of 1886 of the village of Hirebasur gives under the head "Vatandars" the names of "Rungia bin Hanumappa, Rungia and Giriyappa"

Memo:

One Seekappa was the hukdar Patel of Hirebasur in Honnali Taluk. In 1871 he requested the authority that his son Dodda Hanuma might be made the baravardar and that as the said Dodda Hanuma was illiterate his (Seekappa's) younger brother's son Hanumanthia (appellt) might be directed to do the duties.

In 1872 the Dy Comr ordered that pending the Divl Supts orders, the appellant might do the duties.

Anyhow Dodda Hanuma Succeeded his father and the appellant was doing duties as his gumastha.

Dodda Hanuma also died afterwards. The Respondents are his (Vide amildar's report of 22.8.90) not supported by Kaifiyats.

three sons.

The eldest by the 1st Respt Rungappa is illiterate. In 1890 he moves the authorities that his younger brother Giriappa might be appointed Patel and that the appellant might be removed.

The appellant represented to Govt that a partition had been effected in the life time of Seekappa above named in accordance with which the Patelship fell to his share and the inmbli lands to Respondents, and that he had been doing the Patel duties ~~since 1892~~ for the past 20 years.

The Amildar reported to the Dy Commr that it would be unjust to remove the appellant who had been doing the Patel duties for the past 20 years, that there was nothing in the records to support the appellant's allegation that a partition had been effected, and that he had been appoint-ed only as qum as tha.

The Deputy Comm.r held an Enquiry into the case in September 1891 and ordered that Giriappa 2d respondt. should be appointed Patel on probation for one year, & that the appellant Hanumanthi should be removed from the office.

Hanumanthi has appealed to this office against the above order.:

He alleges:-

That a partition had been formerly effected in accordance with which the Patelig of Hirebasur fell to his share.

That in the Potgi settlement of 1878 he was registered as Patel.

That he has been doing the duties for a very long time.

On 23-9-92 the Dy Comm^r was requested to send the records of 1892 relating to the appointment of appellt as gumastha.

The Dy Comm^r in reply to the above states that 26-1-93 the Rev. Std Record Keeper has certified that the records of 1892 refd to above have been destroyed, that the Pukka Potgi settlt records are not forthcoming, although a careful search has been made, and that the Amildar has besides reported that apparently nothing was recorded at the Pukka Potgi settlt about the office in question.

The Survey Supt. was requested in this office No. 17482/172-92 of 24-4-93 to send the Potpi settlement records of Hirebasur village.

The Survey Supt. has accordingly sent up these records:

In a statement shewing the distribution of Potpi &c. of Hirebasur the names of "1 Rungia bin Hanumappa 2 Rungia & Giriappa" are mentioned under the head "names & Shares".

The Patel Rejistr for 1874 of malloor magani mentions Seekia as the registered Patel of Hirebasur and Hanumanthia, Umasta as ~~Guma~~ Gumastha the person actually doing the duty.

The Patel umbli statement of 1886 of Hirebasur mentions "Rungia bin Hanumappa Rungia & Giriappa"

Decision. In March 1871. Seekappa the Inchtar Patel of Hirehastur, Hirnali Taluk gave up his office owing to old age and recommended that his eldest son Hanumiah who was illiterate might be appointed Patel & that his younger brother's son Hanumantiah might be appointed to do duties as Gymastah. Hanumiah died leaving two minor sons the respondents. The latter on attaining majority claimed the office and the Dr Comr of Dharwar thereupon ordered that Hana Appt. Hanumantiah be removed from office & that respondent Giriappah should be appointed Patel on probation

A Hanumanta was accordingly ordered to do duties pending further orders.

Hanumantiah appeals on the ground that he was doing those duties as Hukdar in his own right in pursuance of a partition under which Patel Seekappa his paternal uncle made over the Patelki to him & not as Gumasta.
The point for decision is whether appt did duty as Gumasta or as Hukdar In a petition dated 10/1/190 Hanumantiah states as follows "my adoptive Seekappa during his lifetime, about 1872 gave a petition + same deposition his son should be appointed Patel + that the duties should devolve upon me as Gumasta. In accordance with the same, ever since, I have been doing the duties."
Now Seekappa's grandson Rungappa has petitioned to the effect that the office should be conferred on him & taken away from me. He does not

1 presented personally to the Samasthanadhy officer.

Write. Seckappah has deposed that my Gumastaship should never be taken away."
Her evidence only shows that appt was doing duties not as Huckoor but as gumasta to the late father of R Respt. Now is therefore no reason to set aside the order of the Dy Coll appealed against. The appeal is rejected.

Mr Espinasse states that his appeal has been dismissed as there is no reason for setting aside the order of the Dy Coll. Appt, according to his own admission was a gumasta & not a Huckoor

Sir,

With reference to your Official Memorandum No. 29 dated 16th. ultimo forwarding a petition from Hanamaiya of Hirebasûr for report with proceedings I have the honor to state that Seekaiya was the Hakdar Patél of Hirebasûr village, Honnali Taluk. -

2. He died many years ago — leaving two sons named Dodda = Hanumaiya and Sanna-Hanumaiya, both of whom were minors at the time of the death of their father.

3. In 1871 at the request of the Patél who was admittedly sick and unable to do the work, the Amildar recommended that his eldest son Dodda-Hanumaiya might be appointed Patél and as he was an illiterate person, the Patél's nephew Hanamaiya alias Hanumantaiya (Petitioner) directed to officiate as his gumasta.

4. The Deputy Commissioner directed the Amildar to allow Hanumanta to do the work pending orders to a reference made to the Superintendent of the Division. Vide Deputy Comm's order No. 13 dated 13th March 1872.

5. No reference is available as to what further order was passed in the case, the records having been destroyed. Any how Hanumantaiya had been doing the duties of the office ever since the order quoted above.

6. The Amildar in his report No. 397 dated 22d August 1890 states that the Potgi Baraward contains the following particulars. —"

"Seekappa died, his son Hammaiya was appointed (to succeed). His gumasta is Hammantaiya." — Dodda-Hammaiya died since, — leaving 3 sons viz 1 Rangappa, 2 Giriappa and 3 Timmaiya. The eldest Rangappa put in a petition on the 18th August 1891 that he — might be appointed Patél in succession to his father, and in the course of enquiry deposed that as he was illiterate, his brother No. 2

Giriappa who could read and write might be appointed Patél. The 3rd son Timmaiya had no objection to his elder brother's suggestion -

Consequently Giriappa was appointed Patél on the 15th September 1891 when Petitioner ceased to be the gumasta

7. The Petitioner Hanumaiya now alleges that in the "Pal-patti" exe=cuted by the original Hakdar Seekappa, it is stated that the Patili office should go to the Petitioner and the Inmbali lands to his eldest son Dodda Hanumaiya and solicits that he may be confirmed as Patél

8. The records shew that Petitioner enjoys a share in the Inmbali lands. He made no mention of the "Pal-patti" before, nor produced at the time of the enquiry. He was offered a chance to continue to act as gumasta for some time more, but he declined to avail himself of it.

9. The Petition with its enclosure received is herewith returned together with the records relating to the case.

Advocate.

Decision, dated 21st June 1893.

In March 1891 Veerappa the brother Patel of Hirebasur, died while he was of his office and it was recommended that his eldest son Hanumiah who was illiterate, might be appointed Patel and that his younger brothers con Hanumanthia might be admitted to do duties as Gumasthas. Hanumanthia was accordingly ordered to do duties — pending further orders. Hanumiah died leaving three minor sons the Respondents the 2nd & 3rd on attaining majority claimed the office and the Deputy Commissioner of Chinaja Division ordered on 1891 that Appellant Ramamurthi be removed from office and that Respondent Govindan should be appointed Patel on probation. Ramamurthi appealed on the ground that he was duly elected as Pandyar in his own right in succession of a certain family and that Govindan his paternal uncle made over the Patelship to him and not as Pumacta, the post for decision in which Respondent did but as Pumacta or Pandyar. On a petition dated 5th January 1892 presented personally to the Commissioner, Ramamurthi stated as follows "by analogous Kostaipu during his life-time, about 18 years ago, gave a petition and gave a deposition requesting that his son should be appointed Patel and that that the duties should devolve upon me as Gomashta. In accordance with the same, ever since, I have been doing the duties, but Seshagiri has fraudulently obtained the appointment to the effect that the office should be conferred on him and taken away from me. He does not write. Seshagiri has declared that my Gomashtaship should never be taken away." [illegible] This conduct of Seshagiri was doing duties not as the Gomashta to the Cutcherry of the Collector. Therefore no reason to set aside the order of the Acting Commissioner appealed against. The appeal is rejected.
